

HEINSBURG CEMETERY

This graveyard is located in the town site of Heinsburg on the edge of a farmer's field on the north hill of the town. The farmer has a fence around the unmarked graves. Apparently at one time the people of the town felt the graveyard was too close to their water supply, so they stopped having people buried there. There are four graves there.

MRS. PARENTEAU - her daughter is Elma Twerade (John)
-pronounced PRONTO

ALEX ADNER

MRS. ELISE EVANS - her granddaughter is Mrs. Kaz Lazicki.
and BABY - Apparently Mrs. Evans died in child birth and also has her 10th baby buried with her.
- She left nine children behind and died
about 1934 at about the age of 36
years.
- Her husband - Gilbert died 1984 - had his body donated to the university for research. He was 94 yrs old. (He was born in Wales)
